COFFEE

All our coffees are produced by people we care for and each of them have a story that means something to us.

Needless to say we source responsibly, pay fair prices and keep long term relationships with producers.

We curated these profiles carefully and we are very happy with the offers we managed to put together, check what is available and get in touch for more details on the stories and characteristics of each coffee.

PATRICIA ACAIA

Fazenda Santo Antonio

Crop: 20/21 Producer: Patricia Coelho

Farm Profile: Patricia is a small farmer located at Mogiana, in the city of Espirito Santo do Pinhal. She is taking over the family business now and is facing the challenges that most women do when taking a lead position in Latin America. Not only a producer of great coffees, Patricia is also Bruna's personal friend. That friendship is important because we are working together to help her get started in the specialty industry. This is the second year we work with her and we were able to have three different lots from Patricia's two farms.
